

Introduction

- This document is drawn up in accordance with the planning duty in the Equality Act 2010, Disability Discrimination Act 1995, the Children and Families Act 2014 and the Special Needs & Disabilities Regulations 2014.
- The Write Time is fully aware and active in its duty under the requirements of the Equality Duty that took effect on 5th April 2011 and the responsibility for assessing accessibility lies with the Health and Safety Manager through audit visits and The School Headteacher through the quality assurance process.
- This document is informed and guided by the practice and policies of The Write Time and is reflective of the nature of the work of The Write Time and its varied setting.

Definition of Disability

Disability is defined by the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA):

“A person has a disability if he or she has a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.”

Key Objectives

- To reduce and eliminate barriers to access to the curriculum.
- To bring about full participation in the project community for pupils, and prospective pupils, with a disability.

For this plan and statement, such barriers to the curriculum include emotional, social, and behavioural difficulties, and both diagnosed and undiagnosed autistic spectrum disorders.

Principles

- Compliance with the DDA is consistent with The Write Time's aim of social inclusion, its equality, diversity, and inclusion policies, and the operation of relevant curriculum policies.
- The Write Time recognises its duty under the DDA, the 2014 Special Needs & Disability regulations and the Equality Duty:
  - not to discriminate against disabled pupils in the provision of education and associated services
  - not to treat disabled pupils less favourably
  - to take reasonable steps to avoid putting disabled pupils at a substantial disadvantage
  - to publish an Accessibility Plan (below).
- The Write Time recognises and values parents' knowledge of their child's disability and its effect on his/her ability to carry out normal activities, and respects the parent's and child's right to confidentiality
- The Write Time aims to provide all pupils with a curriculum, differentiated and adjusted to meet the needs of individual pupils and their preferred learning styles, and actively supports the development of a more inclusive curriculum that:
  - setting suitable learning challenges,
  - responding to pupils' diverse learning needs,
  - overcoming potential barriers to learning
  - effective and accurate assessment for individuals, and groups of pupils.
